NEW HOPE FOR SICKLE CELL CARE

TRAILBLAZER: Dr Claire Hemmaway

By Suzi Muston

barking@yellowad.co.uk

A TRAILBLAZING team of doctors are making great strides with a clinical trial designed to improve treatment for patients with sickle cell disease.

The haematology team at Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust is conducting trials at Queen's Hospital, Romford and King George Hospital, Goodmayes.

Dr Claire Hemmaway, consultant haematologist has been praised for managing to recruit 21 patients to take part in the trial.

She was also invited to share her findings at a prestigious conference in Orlando, Florida, USA, by the American Society of Haematology.

Dr Hemmaway said: "Sickle cell disease is the biggest cause of re-admission to hospital in London.

"This is the first trial on patients and the results are very encouraging. People taking the new drug showed an increase in their haemoglobin levels and a reduction in their jaundice levels. Everyone at the conference in the USA was talking about the new drug, so it's a really exciting time for us."

Sickle cell disease is diagnosed in infants on the neonatal screening programme.

Dr Hemmaway added: "Children and young people make up the majority of patients with the condition.

"The new drug to come out of the trial could potentially prevent damage to a child's organs and reduce painful crises. Longer term data is required for the treatment of both adults and children."

The next phase of the trial will look at the benefits of the drug over longer periods of time.

A further study on children with the disease starts in the summer.

Sickle cell disease is an inherited blood disorder where the red blood cells, which carry oxygen around the body, develop abnormally.

COMPETITION

Win £60 of feed and attract garden birds

WITH colder weather setting in, many garden birdwatchers will be looking to help birds survive the winter by providing them with food.

But according to the British Trust for Ornithology (BTO), Britain's leading wild bird research organisation, it isn't just at this time of year that we should be looking to attract birds to our gardens.

The Ernest Charles Company and the BTO work to enrich and enhance the lives of wild birds in the UK.

Research by the BTO has enabled Ernest Charles to develop a premium wild bird care range that provides garden visitors with all the essentials they need to survive and thrive all year round.

Find out how you can help birds survive throughout the year in a short video featuring Clare Simm from the BTO's Garden Ecology by going to <https://youtu.be/289ViKFDbrA>.

Top tips include placing a number of different feeders around your garden that offer a variety of foods, such as Ernest Charles All Seasons and Mealworm blends, as well as its Sunflower blend with oil-rich Sunflower Hearts.

These choice feeds will not only attract the widest range of species, but will also help birds stay in peak condition.

It is also important to supply a fresh source of water throughout the year, for drinking as well as bathing.

Birds will supplement their diet with garden bird food all year, especially during the breeding season or over winter, so why not help them by entering our competition to win one of eight Ernest Charles prize packs worth £60 each, including one pack of each of the Ernest Charles 2kg blends, one tub of 30 Ernest Charles fat balls and one Ernest Charles nest box.

To be in with the chance of winning, answer the following question:

Q Which of the following foods are perfect for attracting birds to your garden?

A: Sunflower Hearts

B: Burgers

C: Pizza

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1668) with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YABIRD (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge.

Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, January 28. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Hunt for lottery winner

COMMUTERS at Barking station were given the red carpet treatment as the National Lottery raised awareness for an unclaimed £4.7million prize won in the area.

A winning ticket for the Lotto draw on September 12 last year that was bought in the borough of Barking and Dagenham but has not been redeemed.

The winner matched the six main numbers, which were 14, 20, 28, 31, 40 and 46.

To highlight the prize the "Millionaire Commuter Experience" was created on Friday for those travelling through Barking station. Swathes of red carpet, butlers and topiary were set up around the station.

Cllr Simon Bremner, mayor of Barking and Dagenham, temporarily took over the PA system to remind people to check if they were the winning ticket holder.

Overseeing the experience was station manager Cassandra Sutton. She said: "I thought we had already seen everything here at Barking station, but I can safely say this is the first time we've had a squad of butlers and the mayor making announcements about multi-million pound Lotto tickets!"

The National Lottery and rail firm c2c also updated the station's signage to ensure people on trains arriving on platforms were made aware of the unclaimed ticket.

The deadline for claiming the £4,668,787 prize is Thursday March 10. If it is not claimed by then, the money will instead go towards lottery-funded projects.

A Camelot spokesperson said:

"Barking station is one of the borough's busiest transport hubs so it's possible the lucky ticket-holder, or someone they know, is travelling through here on a regular basis.

"If they are, hopefully our Millionaire Commuter Experience will remind them to check that ticket and help give a taste of a lifestyle well within the means of someone with a £4.7m fortune in the bank."

Anyone who believes they have the winning ticket should call the National Lottery Line on 0844 338 7551 or email help@national-lottery.co.uk.

TRIBUTE: Holocaust memorial service Valentines Park, Ilford

Memorial service remembers victims of Holocaust and hate

A WOMAN who escaped Nazi persecution will be one of the guests at a Holocaust memorial service inside Ilford's Valentines Park.

Ruth Barnett fled the Nazis aged four with her family and came to England. She will join representatives from Redbridge Council, schools, faith groups and residents at the Holocaust Memorial Garden in the park.

The Holocaust memorial service is dedicated to the millions who died and those survivors who suffered in the Holocaust and other genocides and atrocities.

The event will be opened by the Mayor of Redbridge, Councillor Barbara White.

There will be readings and prayers of remembrance as well as the laying of wreaths and tokens at the Holocaust Memorial Stone.

The service will also feature poems and readings by students of different ages from various schools in Redbridge.

It starts at 11.30am on Tuesday, January 27, in Valentines Park, Cranbrook Road, Ilford.

Appointments help ease burden on A&E units

Health chiefs praise same day GP service

By Suzi Muston

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

THRILLED NHS bosses say a same day GP service has been hailed a success.

Delighted doctors said the service has taken the strain off over-burdened A&E departments at King George Hospital in Barley Lane, Goodmayes, and Queen's Hospital, Romford.

More than 22,500 appointments have been made since the service began in April last year.

The three GP hubs offering urgent appointments are at Southdene Surgery in South Woodford, Newbury Group Practice in Newbury Park and Fullwell Cross Medical Centre in Barkingside.

NHS chiefs said the same day service runs Monday to Friday between 6.30pm and 10pm, on Saturdays between 9am and 5pm and on Sundays between 9am and 1pm.

GP Dr Anil Mehta, chairman of Redbridge Clinical Commissioning Group, told the Y4: "We are really pleased that patients are making the most of these appointments and in doing so helping to free up local accident and emergency departments for the most serious or life-threatening cases."

"On New Year's Day almost all available appointments across the borough were booked, showing how important these appointments are in helping people get urgent care without having to face long waits at accident and emergency."

Doctors are still urging patients to keep using the service for treatment.

People can book appointments on the day by calling the service directly on 020 3770 1888.

Alternatively they can be booked in through their own GP or via NHS 111.

SUCCESS: Dr Anil Mehta

AWARD: Philip Oldershaw, marketing officer at Barking and Dagenham Council, left, Rosie Boycott, and Maureen Lowes, council catering services manager

Leading the way for healthy eating drive

BARKING and Dagenham has been rewarded for making more progress than any other London borough for encouraging healthy eating.

It rose 15 places in the Good Food for London league table, published by Sustain, which assesses the progress councils make in creating a healthier food culture.

Among the achievements the borough was recognised for was its support for food growing in schools and the community, as well as taking steps to form a food partnership.

It was also acknowledged for changing food culture in schools through the Healthy Schools London and Food For Life programmes, as well as encouraging takeaways and restaurateurs to serve healthier food through the Healthier Catering Commitment.

Cllr Maureen Worby, cabinet member for adult social care and health, said: "Through partnership working across the council and by developing links with local and national organisations, we have progressed six more places than any other London council. In all of our targeted and focused work we will continue to encourage children and adults of all ages to benefit from healthy eating and lifestyle choices for long-term healthy lives."

Council leader Cllr Darren Rodwell said the award highlights the fact that the council is making significant progress to build strong and healthy communities.

The award for the most improved London borough was presented at City Hall by Rosie Boycott, chairman of the London Food Board.

She said: "It is heartening to see so many London councils, such as Barking and Dagenham, taking action on good food initiatives. Local authorities are very much on the front line when it comes to improving the diets of Londoners."

Top job

A HARDWORKING Walthamstow Stadium apprentice has won a prize for their work. Billy Caney, 24, from Highams Park, won best overall performer out of 175 apprentices for his commitment during a six-month work placement helping transform the stadium into homes. He is working toward an electrical installation certificate. Billy said: "It was good to be recognised, I really appreciate it. "When I come into a house now I look to see how things work. I really value the kick-start the apprenticeship has given to my career."

Billy is an apprentice for K10, which works with the government to boost apprenticeships. Jack Speckman, his supervisor, said: "Billy is a real asset to his team and is always keen take on a new task and help out wherever he can. He's great to work with."

Have your say

on new river crossings in east and southeast London

We'd like your feedback on proposed new river crossings at Gallions Reach and Belvedere. The crossings would:

- Make it easier to cross the Thames between east and southeast London
- Help reduce cross-river journey times
- Create opportunities for new cross-river public transport links and improvements to walking and cycling options
- Support London's growing economy by better connecting businesses, improving access to jobs and encouraging development

To find out more and have your say, go to tfl.gov.uk/east-london-crossings

The consultation ends 12 February 2016

Media Sales Executive

NEW YEAR . . . NEW CAREER . . . AN OPPORTUNITY

Yellow Advertiser has been published in this area and been a part of the community in Basildon since 1976.

An opportunity has arisen in our new Basildon office to join our busy sales team. We are looking for really exceptional individual who can become part of our commercial division which we are currently expanding. The successful candidates will have many responsibilities in this varied sales role, giving priority to developing new business by cold calling and building relationships with prospective clients. To be successful in our business you need to have a flexible approach to work and be prepared to dig in and roll up your sleeves when the going gets a little bit tough! A proven sales background is essential and we are looking for highly motivated individuals who are keen to learn and keen to earn. A good command of the English language and good writing skills are most definitely a prerequisite, as are good listening skills and computer literacy.

What is in it for you:

Basic Salary plus tiered bonus structure, 5 weeks holiday per annum, Pension Scheme (after qualifying period), On-going training.

If this sounds like the opportunity for you please email vickyburles@yellowad.co.uk with your current CV and the reasons why you match our requirements.

Previous applicants need not apply.

Yellow Advertiser is part of the Tindle Newspapers Ltd., a group of privately owned, independent, family newspapers.

MAGPIES' START STUNS HAMMERS

West Ham United

Newcastle United 2
West Ham United 1
Brian Jeeves reporting
from St James' Park

EARLY goals from Ayoze Perez and Georginio Wijnaldum earned struggling Newcastle United a rare Barclays Premier League victory at St James' Park, ending West Ham's impressive unbeaten sequence in the process.

It has proved to be a frustrating campaign for the Magpies. Steve McCaren's men went into the game without a win in four league outings and firmly entrenched in a relegation battle.

However, there was renewed optimism among the Toon Army following a useful and exciting midweek clash with Manchester United.

Former England boss McClaren included new signing Jonjo Shelvey in his starting line-up. The England midfielder had arrived on Tyneside after a £12million move from Swansea City during the week.

Meanwhile West Ham arrived in the North East brimming with confidence and looking to establish a new club record in the Premier League era of nine matches without defeat.

But it was the home side who started well with Wijnaldum and Daryl Janmaat probing the Hammers rear-guard, while Perez forced Adrian into a decent save low to his left.

The visitors clearly hadn't heeded the warning, and when livewire Perez found some room on the edge of the box he fired low beyond Adrian to give Newcastle an early lead.

West Ham were stunned by the Magpies' electric start. Aaron Cresswell looked to find an opening for Michail Antonio, but Newcastle skipper Fabricio Coloccini arrived in the nick of time to avert the danger.

Before the visitors could steady the ship their troubles deepened.

Leading marksman Wijnaldum met Janmaat's pinpoint centre, crisply sweeping past Adrian to double the lead with barely 15 minutes played. It was almost three when Aleksander Mitrovic tiptoed through the beleaguered Hammers backline, this time Adrian saved with his feet.

West Ham were wobbling. Adrian was called upon twice in a matter of seconds to deny Paul Dummett and Janmaat, while Moussa Sissoko was snubbed out by some expert defending from James Collins.

Mitrovic should have put the outcome beyond doubt before the break, but the Serbian frontman fluffed his lines after Janmaat had again crafted the opening.

At the other end Cheikhou Kouyate almost halved the deficit, but Magpies keeper Rob Elliot was equal to his close range snapshot.

Wijnaldum scuffed wide as Newcastle looked to start the second period as they had the first.

But then a lifeline for West Ham. Substitute Nikica Jelavic latched onto Chancel Mbemba's poor back pass before rounding Elliot and rolling into the net, despite the efforts of Dummett on the line.

There was now an air of unease around St James Park.

Mitrovic looked to ease their fears, but Adrian firstly did well to scoop away his flicked effort goalwards, and then brilliantly tipped over his thundering attempt after Shelvey had played him in.

Mitrovic and Adrian continued their personal duel. This time the Spanish keeper produced a terrific stop to keep the Hammers in the match. Shelvey was next to try his luck, but his effort only found the grateful Adrian's midriff.

Elliot blocked Kouyate's late header and Jelavic fired narrowly over as West Ham pushed for a share of the spoils. Meanwhile Jack Colback had Adrian scrambling but his drive from distance fizzed the wrong side of an upright.

But Newcastle had done enough to record only their fifth Premier League victory of the campaign.

Speaking after the game, disappointed Hammers chief Slaven Bilic said: "We were the team that should start with more confidence because we were unbeaten for a number of games. They've improved a lot recently, but still they were down."

"We were counting on confidence being on our side. Unfortunately, that wasn't the case.

"We have to give them credit. Very quickly they scored two goals, and especially when you play at home your confidence is sky high. Their quality was never in question, but they don't show it week in, week out."

"We could have nicked a point, it wouldn't have been the first time, but to be fair we have to admit in everything they were better and they deserved to beat us."

Delighted Magpies boss McClaren said: "I thought the first 20 minutes, intensity, tempo, front foot, controlled the game of football, two great goals."

"The team kept their composure and defended well. A massive three points for us."

West Ham now face a tough challenge when title-chasing Manchester City are the visitors to Upton Park, on Saturday, January 23 (5.45pm).

Newcastle United: Rob Elliot, Fabricio Coloccini (Capt), Paul Dummett (Henri Saivet), Jack Colback, Georginio Wijnaldum, Moussa Sissoko, Jonjo Shelvey, Ayoze Perez (Yoan Gouffran), Chancel Mbemba, Daryl Janmaat, Aleksandar Mitrovic (Jamaal Lascelles) Subs not used: Rolando Aarons, Karl Darlow, Emmanuel Riviere, Ivan Toney

Non-league round-up

Cleaver seals Rovers' return

By Brian Jeeves

JACOB Cleaver's early goal earned Great Waking Rovers three priceless Ryman League Division One North points against Essex rivals Redbridge.

Cleaver's 16th minute strike settled this Burroughs Park derby, which was the villagers' first win in 10 league outings and moved them up to 15th in the table.

Romford made short work of Heybridge Swifts. Talha Zakariya and George Woodward on target in a 2-0 success, and it was the same outcome at Chadfields where visitors Aveley saw off Tilbury thanks to goals either side of the interval from Abs Seymour and Arian Retkoceri.

Russell Halton grabbed a brace and Jake Clowsley added another as Brightlingsea Regent won by the odd goal in five at Cray Wanderers, while George Purcell's second half strike earned AFC Hornchurch a share of the spoils from a 1-1 draw at AFC Sudbury.

Elsewhere in Division One North, Michael Ademiluyi's goal helped Barking-side to a 1-1 draw at Wroxham, but Witham Town went down 3-2 at home to Haringey Borough.

In the Ryman Premier Division Sam Higgins grabbed both goals as East Thurrock United took maximum points from a 2-1 victory at Tonbridge Angels.

Former Brentford striker Nathan Elder was on target for the Kent outfit. Grays Athletic eased out Farnborough by three goals to one, Bradley Fortnam-Tomlinson, Joao Carlos and Corey Davidson with the hosts goals. Former Southend United man Teddy Nesbitt was again on target as Billericay Town grabbed a point from a 1-1 draw with rivals Brentwood Town at New Lodge. Ryan O'Rawe had given Brentwood an early lead, but Nesbitt's second half equaliser extended Town's unbeaten sequence to 15 matches.

But it was a bad afternoon for Canvey Island who crashed 4-0 against high-flying Hampton & Richmond Borough at Park Lane. Jamal Lowe scoring twice for the visitors.

In the National League South, Chelmsford City's woes continued as they were thrashed 4-1 at Margate. Matthew Whitchell scored the Clarets goal. This latest setback saw them slip to 15th in the table, one place below rivals Concord Rangers.

Braintree Town were the victims of an FA Trophy second round upset courtesy of Northern Premier League Stourbridge.

In the Essex Senior League Hullbridge Sports led the way with a 6-2 hammering of Enfield 1893.

Clapton won their derby with Wadham Lodge at the Old Spotted Dog by two goals to nil, while FC Romania were 3-1 winners at Eton Manor. The matches between Sporting Bengal United and Burnham Ramblers (1-1), as well as Takeley and Sawbridgeworth (0-0) ended all-square.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League Division One saw Canning Town win 3-1 against visitors Old Southendian, while Runwell Hospital earned all three points from a 2-0 triumph at Old Chelmsfordians.

In Division Two FC Hamlets comfortably dispatched Rochford Town 4-1.

Hendon sacked as O's boss

IAN Hendon's reign in the Orient hot seat ended shortly after his now former charges capitulated against mid-table Exeter on Saturday – a defeat that saw them slip into mid-table.

A statement on the Orient website on Monday confirmed that Hendon had been relieved of his duties as head coach.

Assistant Andy Hessenthaler has been put in temporary charge after the O's registered just one win since November 21.

Exeter's Ollie Palmer scored straight from the kick-off as City, Liverpool-bound for an FA Cup midweek replay, stole the points before the break thanks to a Jayden Stockley brace and cup-hero Tom Nichols' strike.

Twenty-goal Jay Simpson then missed two second half penalties for Orient in a shocking display by the O's.

Michelle steals the show at Lee Valley

Athletics

MICHELLE Hughes once again grabbed the headlines as she added South of England Under 20 long jump gold and hurdles bronze to her recent Southern pentathlon title at Lee Valley on Sunday.

But her long jump victory tested her competitive spirit to the full as she was down in sixth after the third round and only just squeezed into the jump off final. But she found her form when it mattered and her fourth round jump put her in a podium place before leaping a final round indoor PB of 5.66m to claim gold.

Michelle had earlier won 60m hurdles bronze, equalling her PB of 8.99s in the process, after a 9.07s heat and clocked 26.00s to qualify for the 200m final but decided to opt out of the final after a busy day.

Bethan Siddons opened her 2016 indoor account with seventh place in the senior women's high jump competition with a solid 1.65m clearance while Chloe Van Wulven clocked her fastest indoor times for several years with a 9.10s heat and 9.05s semi-final but missed out on a final place.

Matt Owers set two indoor bests in the Under 20 events clocking a swift 52.53s for 400m after a 54.02s heat and returned on Sunday to clock an indoor 200m PB of 23.66s.

Sydney Conteh set a new career best with 56.32s in the senior 400m and Fraser Boston's 200m time of 23.67s in the Under 20 event was also a new best.

Lucy Bailey returned to hurdles action after an injury-affected 2015 with 9.62s heat in the U20 hurdles.

SUCCESS: Michelle Hughes
